

Wyoming County Press Examiner
March 19, 2008

Business spotlight

Shadowbrook Inn and Resort, Tunkhannock, was recently presented with MetroAction's Small Business Spotlight Award for its rich history and commitment to improving the local community. Shadowbrook was the first nine-hole golf course in Wyoming County and is still reinventing itself today. Each month, MetroAction presents the Small Business Spotlight award to a local business that is dedicated to giving back to their local community. From left are Kristen Lawson; Joe Bencivenga, Shadowbrook General Manager; and Desiree Ranella of MetroAction and The Greater Scranton Chamber of Commerce.