

Danielle and Company receives loan funds from MetroAction

Danielle and Company, headquartered in Clarks Summit, produces soaps and beauty products which are sold across the county in upscale boutiques and spas.

MetroAction offers several loan programs for small businesses across eight counties in northeastern Pennsylvania. MetroAction specializes in assisting underserved borrowers who may not be able to obtain financing from traditional financing sources, such as banks. MetroAction is one of the only community development non-profit organizations in northeastern Pennsylvania to provide loans to under-served small businesses.

Small business owners interested in more information can call MetroAction at 342-7711.

MetroAction announced that it has assisted Danielle Fleming of Danielle and Company, shown at right, in obtaining a $20,000 loan to continue to expand her business.

