

$500 grant awarded

Little People West, of Scranton, received a $500 grant from MetroAction's Child Care MicroGrant program. curriculum to support the development of the more than 200 children in their care. The MetroAction Childcare MicroGrant program awards 10 MicroGrants each year to improve the quality of childcare in eight counties throughout northeastern Pennsylvania. From left, Deborah Callahan, director of education of Little People West; and Desiree Ranella, business development specialist for MetroAction.

