

MetroAction Talks Small Business With Senator

MetroAction recently met with Senator Lisa Baker to discuss alternative financing and training opportunities for small businesses in northeastern Pennsylvania. MetroAction is a non-profit community development organization dedicated to providing small business financing, training and recognition throughout eight counties in northeastern Pennsylvania, including Carbon, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Monroe, Pike, Susquehanna,

Wayne and Wyoming counties. To date, MetroAction has provided more than $2.5 million in financing to area businesses and has trained and counseled thousands of entrepreneurs and business professionals. Pictured from left to right are Christina Hitchcock, Business Development Administrator, MetroAction; Senator Baker; Kristine Augustine, Vice President of Business and Community Development, MetroAction; and Desiree Ranella, Business Development Specialist, MetroAction.

